

KS1

Design and technology involves exploring, designing, making and evaluating products that solve real-life problems. Design and technology also includes looking at, planning and preparing healthy snacks for a balanced diet.

KS2

Design and technology involves exploring, designing, making and evaluating products which fit a specific design brief and target audience, these products will solve real-life problems. Design and technology also looks at, planning and preparing healthy meals for a balanced diet.