

KS1

History is the study of the past. It helps us to understand events that happened a long time ago and how people used to live.

KS2

History is the study of the past and helps us to make sense of humankind. It also helps us to understand the events and lives of people in the past, but also things that happen today and may happen in the future.