Dear Parents/Carers,

We are writing to share some important details about our upcoming Anti-Bullying Week and how our school community will be taking part to support a safe, kind, and inclusive environment for all of our students.

Odd Socks Day – Monday 16th November

To kick off Anti-Bullying Week, Oak Green School will be celebrating Odd Socks Day on Monday 16th November.

Odd Socks Day is a fun, lighthearted way for children and staff to celebrate what makes us all unique and different. There is no pressure to buy anything new—children are simply invited to come to school wearing mismatched or colorful odd socks for the day to show their support!

Understanding Bullying: Using "STOP"

As part of Anti-Bullying Week, we will be reinforcing our whole-school definition of bullying so that all children feel empowered to recognise and address it. At Oak Green School, we use the simple acronym STOP to help students understand what bullying is:

STOP stands for Several Times On Purpose.

We use this definition to help pupils distinguish between accidental behavior or a one-off argument and behavior that is repeated deliberately over time.

Thank you for your continued support in making Oak Green School a place where every child feels valued, respected, and safe. We look forward to seeing a wonderful array of odd socks on Monday 16th November!

Mr N Marshall
